FUND MANAGER'S REVIEW

Market Review

The Malaysian stock market started the year on a positive note and the FBM KLCI broke through the 1,300-point threshold. However, concerns about policy tightening in China and potential new policies on banks in the US caused jitteriness in global markets in the latter part of the month. The Malaysian market was not spared and the FBM KLCI closed with a 1.1% decline for the month. Among regional markets, Indonesia was the best performing market while China and Hong Kong were laggards.

While the overall market declined, small cap stocks fared better with the FBM Small Cap index rising 4.2% for the month. There was rotational play among rubber glove manufacturers, steel, and technology counters.

Comments

For the month of Jan, the Fund underperformed its benchmark mainly due to stock selection. We would maintain our equity weighting within the 75-85% region and would look to increase our equity exposure on pullbacks.
